

FORTUNA BRASS band

(Moscow, Russia)

Russian jazz band graduates of the Moscow Tchaikovsky Conservatory and the music Gnessins Academy “Fortuna brass” in the last years his creativity has successfully proved that there is no more majestic and natural live sound than the sound of trumpets.

The main specificity of the musicians is that all the infinity of musical styles and genres, they performed only by brass instruments. Trumpet, Flugelhorn, Tenor trombone, Trombone, Bass tuba and Percussion instruments, led by their leader Alexander Shatalov, since 2003, have given more than 500 solo concerts in Russia, Europe, CIS, far abroad, and created many striking events in the biography of the ensemble.

It has long been known that breath is life! So today there is no more live and natural sound than the play of wind instruments. Incredible mobility and independence from sound amplifying equipment in a compartment with a diverse repertoire of more than 300 works, allows the team to easily cope with any musical task. This can be seen once on any of the concerts of the ensemble.